The Mystery of Dealey Plaza

Bravo for your articles, "Killing the Messenger" (Feb. 16). I have grown angry and weary with the plethora of negative responses to Oliver Stone's JFK. Whether or not one is a "conspiracy nut," we all deserve and need to know the truth after three decades of secrecy and deceit. The issue is not the merits of the movie per se; the issue lies in the questions it raises. Todd Gitlin poses the most salient question of all: "What the hell is going on here?"
